2010 CTHS British Columbia Sale Summary

A pre-sale address by Minister of Gaming, Rich Coleman ensuring an ongoing commitment by the government to support and promote Thoroughbred horse-racing and breeding in British Columbia, just might have been the spark that motivated several significant local buyers at the 2010 CTHS yearling and mixed sale.

Despite the numerous recent changes in the industry, the prominent names remained the same at the annual auction held at world-renowned Thunderbird Show Park in Langley.

Two of the sale's perennial supporters Nick and Pauline Felicella went to $80,000 for the sales topper, Hip #93, a well turned out yearling colt by Storm Cat's son Storm Victory out of the Pleasant Colony mare Boundless Colony, consigned by Marg Leight and Helen Klimes, Klimes Farm, Agent, the sale's second-leading consignor. The impressive individual is a full brother to recent stakes winner Boundless Cat and stakes-placed Surprisal.

This marked the third time in the last six years that the Felicella's have made the sale's highest purchase and underlines their enduring commitment to the sport of horse racing in British Columbia. The husband and wife team combined to spend $158,500 for five yearlings and were the third highest buyer at the event.

With slightly less horses catalogued from the previous year, the sale made some significant increases in several categories.

The total number of horses purchased in this year's edition of the sale was 87, grossing $1,031,400, reflecting a slight upturn from last season when 90 horses sold reached a gross of $989,600. This year's sale average was $11,855, up significantly when compared to last year's average of $10,996 but the median in 2010 was $5,500, down from $6,500 in 2009. It was apparent that the high-end of the sale improved at the expense of the low-end.

The average price of yearlings sold was also up significantly this year, with 83 being purchased for $1,026,900 compared to 2009 when 84 yearlings sold brought $954,200. The average yearling this year went for $12,372, up from $11,360 in 2009. This year's yearling median was $6,000, down from

The sale's second-best seller was Hip# 89, a colt by the hot sire Stephanotis out of Ayne Z. with an abundance of recent black-type on his page. Purchased by the sale's leading buyer Glen Todd, as agent, for $50,000 from agent Mike Anderson, the colt is a half-brother to 2008 champion juvenile El Sinaloense and 2009 stakes-placed Clear to Canada. Glen Todd made eight other purchases and spent a total of $166,500 to lead all buyers.

The auction's second-leading buyer and sale leader in 2009, was Swift Thoroughbreds, Inc. who purchased six yearlings at this session for a total of $164,000, including Hip #99, a yearling filly by Mutakddim out of Classical Romance from leading consignor Tod Mtn. Thoroughbreds, that brought $49,000.

The mood of the sale started off as pensive but horsemen began to show confidence during the middle of the session and feelings at the finish were encouraging.
